Good practices:

Luxembourg provided descriptions for all reported exports and imports.

Room for improvement:

Luxembourg did not indicate if it reported Authorized or Actual transfers.

Luxembourg aggregated some information on reported exports by small arms sub-category, making it impossible to analyse how many weapons in each-subcategory were transferred to the multiple importing states.

Transfer summary - 2018: Export Data

- Luxembourg reported small arms exports to three countries in 2018. Of these, one was an ATT State Party, one was a Signatory and one was a non-member (Qatar). Luxembourg was not the state of origin for any of its exports.
- Luxembourg reported the export of six small arms items: four rifles and carbines, and two revolvers and self-loading pistols.

Reporting practice summary - 2018

Luxembourg's reporting changed in its 2018 annual report.

Luxembourg reported Numbers of small arms exports and did not specify whether they were Actual or Authorized transfers, though it provided this information in its 2017 report. It did not report major conventional weapons or light weapons exports.

Luxembourg reported Numbers of small arms imports and did not specify whether they were Actual or Authorized transfers, though it submitted a 'nil' report for imports in its 2017 report. It did not report major conventional weapons or light weapons imports.

Transfer summary - 2018: Import Data

- Luxembourg reported small arms imports from two countries, both of which were ATT States Parties.
- Luxembourg reported the export of 337 small arms items, covering three sub-categories: assault rifles (70 per cent), sub-machine guns (18 per cent) and revolvers and self-loading pistols (12 per cent).
