Good practices:

Spain provided clear, disaggregated data for all reported exports and imports.

Room for improvement:

Spain did not indicate by ticking the relevant boxes if it was including 'nil' reports for its imports or exports, though it provided data for both.

Spain could provide descriptions of items or comments on its exports and imports.

Transfer summary - 2018: Export Data

- Spain reported exports to six countries in 2018. Of these, two were ATT State Parties and four were non-members (Indonesia, Kenya, Pakistan and Saudi Arabia).
- Spain reported the export of 21 major conventional weapons items, all of which were large-calibre artillery systems to Saudi Arabia.
- Spain reported the export of 2,952 SALW items, covering three sub-categories. Of these, the majority were portable anti-tank missile launchers and rocket systems (99 per cent).
- The main importers of SALW exports from Spain were Pakistan (49 per cent), Estonia (34 per cent) and Indonesia (16 per cent).

Reporting practice summary - 2018

Spain's reporting changed slightly in its 2018 annual report.

Spain reported Actual Numbers of major conventional weapons and SALW exports, though it did not report exports of small arms in its 2017 report.

Spain reported Actual Numbers of light weapons imports, though it did not report any in its 2017 report. It did not report any imports of major conventional weapons or small arms, though it did report small arms imports in its 2017 report.

Transfer summary - 2018: Import Data

- Spain reported imports from two countries in 2018. One was an ATT State Party and one was a Signatory.
- Spain reported the import of 29 light weapons items: five heavy machine guns from the United States and 24 portable anti-tank missile launchers and rocket systems from Germany.
