Good practices:

Sweden made extensive use of 'Section C: Voluntary National Categories' to report data under 19 out of 22 EU Common Military List categories. It reported aggregate Actual Values of items exported to individual destinations under each category.¹

Sweden provided descriptions of items for exports and imports reported in ATT major conventional weapons and SALW categories.

Room for improvement:

Sweden submitted 2018 reports using both the ATT reporting template and online reporting tool. However, information reported under voluntary national categories was included only in the ATT reporting template and not the online version.

Sweden could provide comments on its exports and imports describing the end-use and/or end-user.

Transfer summary - 2018: Export Data

- Sweden reported exports under sections A and B to ten countries. Of these, nine were ATT States Parties and one was a Signatory.
- Sweden reported the export of 14 major conventional weapons items under sections A and B, all of which were armoured combat vehicles to Austria.
- Sweden reported light weapon exports under sections A and B, covering two sub-categories. It kept the amounts of each classified.
- Under voluntary national categories, Sweden also provided data covering 19 categories of the EU Common Military List. Under ML1 items, which include small arms, it reported exports worth SEK17.3m (US$2m).² In terms of value, the majority of ML1 exports were to the Netherlands (35 per cent), South Africa (17 per cent) and France (10 per cent).

Reporting practice summary - 2018

Sweden's reporting remained the same in its 2018 annual report.

Sweden reported Actual Numbers of major conventional weapons and light weapons exports. It reported Actual Values of exports under voluntary national categories. It did not report any small arms exports.

Sweden reported Actual Numbers of major conventional weapons imports. It did not report imports of SALW.

Transfer summary - 2018: Import Data

- Sweden reported one import of a classified number of missiles and missile launchers (missiles) from the United Kingdom.

1 Of the items reported by Sweden under voluntary national categories, only ML1 items (smooth-bore weapons with a calibre of less than 20mm, other arms and automatic weapons with a calibre of 12.7mm (calibre 0.50 inches) or less) are considered for analysis here, as Sweden indicated in its report that these items corresponded to Small Arms (aggregated).
