

ROMANIA

Was an Annual Report submitted by 31 May 2018?	Yes
Was the Annual Report made public?	Yes
Was a 'nil' report submitted for exports or imports in 2017?	No
Was data withheld for 'commercial sensitivity/national security-related' reasons?	No

Good practices:

Romania provided clear, disaggregated data on all reported exports and imports in 2017.

Romania provided descriptions of items in some cases and comments on transfers, including comments on the end-use and/or end-user.

Room for improvement:

Romania aggregated states of origin for many reported SALW imports.

Transfer summary - 2017: Export Data

- Romania reported exports to nine countries in 2017. Of those, five were ATT States Parties, one was a Signatory and three were non-members (Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Vietnam).
- Romania did not report any exports of major conventional weapons in 2017.
- Romania reported the export of 41,508 SALW items in 2017, spanning seven sub-categories. The majority were assault rifles (48 per cent), revolvers and self-loading pistols (23 per cent), and rifles and carbines (17 per cent).
- The main countries that Romania reported exporting SALW to were Iraq (49 per cent), the United States (35 per cent) and Germany (8 per cent).

Reporting practice summary - 2017

Romania's reporting practice in its Annual Report for 2017 was the same as that for 2016. It reported Actual Numbers of exports of SALW items and imports of major conventional weapons and SALW items. Its reporting practice in 2017 was identical to 2016, except that it did not report any exports of major weapons in 2017.

Transfer summary - 2017: Import Data

- Romania reported imports from 13 countries in 2017. Of these, 12 were ATT States Parties and one was a Signatory.
- The only major weapon import reported by Romania was for three manned combat aircraft from Portugal (with the United States listed as the state of origin).
- Romania reported the import of 2,497 SALW items in 2017, spanning five sub-categories. The majority of these were rifles and carbines (71 per cent), followed by revolvers and self-loading pistols (26 per cent).