REPORTING PRACTICE SUMMARY - 2019

Argentina's reporting changed slightly in its 2019 annual report.

Argentina continued to report Actual Numbers of small arms exports. It did not report major conventional weapons or light weapons exports.

Argentina continued to report Numbers of major conventional weapons imports but did not specify if they were authorized or actual transfers, as it did in its 2018 report. It reported Actual Numbers of most of its small arms imports but did not specify if the numbers represented authorized or actual transfers in a few instances. It did not report imports of light weapons.

GOOD PRACTICES

Argentina provided descriptions of most exports and imports, as well as comments on some imports describing the nature of its transfers.

Argentina reported imports under the small arms 'others' sub-category and clarified in descriptions that it reported shotguns.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Argentina excluded some data for 'commercial sensitivity/national security-related' reasons but did not specify where or how much information was withheld.

Argentina did not specify the exporting state in some of its reported imports.

Argentina could provide comments describing the nature of more of its reported exports and imports.
