REPORTING PRACTICE SUMMARY - 2019
Switzerland’s reporting changed slightly in its 2019 annual report.

Switzerland continued to report Actual Numbers of major conventional weapons exports and Authorized Numbers of SALW exports.

Switzerland reported Actual Numbers of major conventional weapons imports, though it reported authorized numbers in its 2018 report. It reported Authorized Numbers of SALW imports, though it did not report imports of light weapons in its 2018 report.

In Annex 2 of the online reporting tool, Switzerland clarified its national definitions for reported exports and imports, including a detailed description of its Category VIII definition.

* Report submitted before it was due
Switzerland reported imports from 24 countries in 2019. Of these, 21 were ATT States Parties and three were Signatories.

Switzerland reported the import of six major conventional weapons items, all of which were large-calibre artillery systems from Spain.

Switzerland reported the import of 9,596 SALW items in 2019, covering eight sub-categories. Of these, the majority were revolvers and self-loading pistols (55 per cent), assault rifles (24 per cent) and rifles and carbines (8 per cent).

The main importers of small arms to Switzerland were the United States (79 per cent), Germany (6 per cent) and Italy (5 per cent).

Switzerland provided clear, disaggregated data on each reported export and import.

Switzerland clarified its national definitions for reported exports and imports in Annex 2 of the online reporting tool, including a detailed description of its Category VIII definition.

Switzerland could provide more descriptions and comments describing the nature of its exports and imports.
