REPORTING PRACTICE SUMMARY - 2022

Argentina's reporting changed slightly in 2022.

Argentina reported Actual and Authorized Numbers of small arms exports, as opposed to 2021 when it only reported Actual Numbers.

Argentina reported a combination of Actual and Authorized Numbers of major conventional weapons imports, as opposed to 2021 when it only reported Actual Numbers. It reported Actual and Authorized Numbers of SALW imports, a change from 2021 when it reported only Actual Numbers.

GOOD PRACTICES

Argentina continued to provide disaggregated numbers for its small arms exports and imports, both by weapon type and by importing and exporting state.

Argentina provided descriptions for all its reported imports and exports and comments for all its reported major conventional weapons imports.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Argentina could provide more comments describing the nature of its reported imports and exports of small arms.

Argentina did not specify whether it reported authorized or actual imports of manned attack helicopters, warships and rifles and carbines.

Argentina could indicate which reported transfers were authorized and which ones were actual.

Argentina could indicate clearly that there were no reported exports or imports in specific weapons categories and sub-categories rather than leaving relevant sections of the reporting template blank.
