REPORTING PRACTICE SUMMARY - 2022

Luxembourg's reporting changed in 2022.

Luxembourg reported Actual Numbers of SALW exports.

Luxembourg continued to report Actual Numbers of small arms imports and did not report any imports of major conventional weapons or light weapons.

GOOD PRACTICES

Luxembourg provided clear, disaggregated data for all of its small arms imports and SALW exports.

Luxembourg provided descriptions for all its reported exports and imports.

Luxembourg reported the state of origin of some of its reported exports and imports.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Luxembourg could provide comments describing the nature of its exports and imports.

Luxembourg could indicate clearly that there were no reported exports or imports in specific weapons categories and sub-categories rather than leaving relevant sections of the reporting template blank.

TRANSFER SUMMARY - 2022: EXPORT DATA

- Luxembourg reported exports to three countries in 2022. Of these, two were ATT States Parties and one was a Signatory.
- Luxembourg did not report exports of major conventional weapons in its 2022 annual report.
- Luxembourg reported the export of 124 SALW items covering three sub-categories. These were portable anti-tank missile launchers and rocket systems (82.3 per cent), heavy machine guns (16.1 per cent) and rifles and carbines (1.6 per cent).
- The importers of SALW from Luxembourg were Ukraine (98.4 per cent), New Zealand (0.8 per cent) and United Kingdom (0.8 per cent).
