REPORTING PRACTICE SUMMARY - 2022

Malta continued to report Authorized Numbers and Values of small arms exports. Malta did not report any major conventional weapons and light weapons exports.

Malta continued to report Authorized Numbers of small arms imports. Malta did not report any major conventional weapons and light weapons imports.

GOOD PRACTICES

Malta indicated clearly that there were no reported exports and imports of major conventional weapons in specific weapons categories and sub-categories.

Malta reported the state of origin of its reported exports and imports.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Malta excluded some data for 'commercial sensitivity/national security-related' reasons but did not specify where or how much information was withheld.

Malta aggregated final exporting and importing countries for its small arms imports and exports, making it impossible to determine from where small arms items were imported from or exported to.

Malta could provide more descriptions and comments on exports and imports of small arms.
